

Martin J. Burgard

ERIE — Services have been set for Martin James (Marty) Burgard, 42, of 3330 E. Erie Rd., an Erie Township trustee for 7½ years and former president of the Monroe County Chapter, Michigan Townships Association, who died about 5:30 p.m. Monday in Toledo Hospital, Toledo.

He was to have undergone surgery Monday, but died before the surgery. An autopsy was performed, but the cause of death was still not available today from the Lucas County (Ohio) coroner's office.

Friends may call after 5 today in the Bennett Funeral Home, Monroe Chapel, where St. Joseph Council 7413, Knights of Columbus, will recite the rosary at 7 tonight. The rosary also will be recited at 7 p.m. Thursday, followed by an ecumenical service. Services will be at 10:30 a.m. Friday in the funeral home, with a funeral Mass to be celebrated at 11:30 a.m. in St. Joseph Catholic Church, Erie. The Rev. Robert Haener will officiate and burial will be in St. Joseph Cemetery, Erie.

Mr. Burgard was born Feb. 6, 1943, in Toledo, the son of Ross and Hattie (Stock) Burgard. He was married Oct. 20, 1967, to Beverly Ridner in Erie.

He was employed as a millwright by the Dana Corp., Toledo.

Cause of death given

TOLEDO — The official cause of death for Martin J. (Marty) Burgard, 42, of 3330 E. Erie Rd., Erie, Monday afternoon in Toledo Hospital was a pulmonary embolus (blood clot on the lung), Lucas County coroner Dr. James Patrick ruled Wednesday.

Mr. Burgard died of complications from a knee injury suffered on Oct. 27, Dr. Patrick said. A blood clot is a fairly common cause of death following an injury to the lower extremities of the body, he said.

He was a life member of St. Joseph Church and was secretary of the parish council. He was a special minister of the Eucharist of the parish and was active in Marriage Encounter. He was a member of Council 7413, K of C, and United Auto Workers Local 12, Toledo.

Surviving are his wife; his parents of Erie; two sons, James and Marc, both at home; two daughters, Beth Ann and Renee, both at home; three brothers, Daniel and David, both of Erie, and Dale of Birmingham, and seven sisters, Sister Mary Kent of Whitehouse, Ohio; Mrs. Homer (Madaline) Ausmus and Mrs. Tom (Florence) Hilken, both of Erie; Mrs. Bob (Susan) Darmafol of Toledo; Sister Mary Ross of Norwalk, Ohio; Sister Mary Marc of Whitehouse, Ohio, and Sister Mary Dale of Maumee, Ohio.

Donations may be made to the Marty Burgard memorial fund.
