Airport Scores Win in Opener

*Ron Hatcher Hurls Jets to 7-5 Victory

(Special to The Evening News)

BELLEVILLE — All-around Ron Hatcher weathered a three-run Belleville rally despite a growing sore arm here Wednesday as he pitched Airport's Jets to an opening game victory over the Tigers, 7-5.

The game originally was scheduled for the Carleton diamond but transferred here because of wet grounds. The Jets remained the home team.

Coach Bill Leech's club, which opens its Southeastern Michigan Conference schedule against Tecumseh today, belted a pair of Belleville hurlers for seven runs and six hits to take a commanding, 7-2 lead going into the final stanza.

*Hatcher, whose arm bothered him more and more as the game progressed, dished up a two-run triple to Danaezgn and the same player scored on an error to make it 7-5. After that, not a man reached base.

Airport's big inning was the sixth when a walk to Ken Phifer, Ray Doede's single, an error and Ron Breitner's two-run one-baser produced three tallies. They proved to be decisive.

Breitner and Jabe each had two safeties for the winners with Belleville's seven blows spread among as many players.

Breitner Hurls One-Hitter As Jets Win Third Straight

(Special to The Evening News)

CARLETON — Junior Ron Breitner, cleanup man in the Airport lineup, turned his talents to pitching here Monday and paced the Jets to a 3-2 victory over stubborn Huron Township. It was the third straight triumph for Coach Bill Leech's aggregation.

Breitner and Huron's Suemnich locked up in a first class pitcher's duel, each hurler giving up only one hit. First baseman Tossi wrecked the Jet no-hit bid with a bunt single in the fourth inning, but Airport made its lone safety much more devastating.

A walk to Doug Ramsey set the stage for Breitner in the opening frame. He blasted the ball high and deep to center field as both he and Ramsey circled the bases.

What proved to be the winning run was the result of Ron Hatcher's adept base-running. He got on with a base on balls, stole second, took third on an error and stole home.

Both Huron runs were unearned, although Tossi's scratch single figured in a lone fourth inning tally. The left-handed first sacker dragged one between first and second base to spoil Breitner's effort.

Coach Leech now has used three hurlers in as many games and none has allowed more than five runs. Breitner displayed a good fast ball in striking out 14 but he walked four and hit two batters. Suemnich had 10 strikeouts and is the best hurler faced by the Jets this year.

A three-run homer by Hatcher sparked Airport's 8-2 triumph over Tecumseh Friday. Details of the contest were not reported until Monday night.

Roger Hoog stopped the Indians on five hits, getting 10 batters via the strikeout route. John Jabe joined Hatcher in run-producing with a two-tally single.

Tecumseh is the defending Southeastern Michigan Conference title-holder.

Bedford Mules End Airport Win Streak

4-22-55

LAMBERTVILLE—Bedford Rural Ag and Airport Community, a pair of Southeastern Michigan Conference baseball powers, locked horns in a wild game here Thursday with the Mules taking a 10-7 victory.

Going into the battle, the teams had lost an aggregate of only one game—Bedford's defeat at the hands of Class A Monroe. But neither displayed the form that had carried them to seven victories, many in well-played, low-scoring tilts.

The contest originally was scheduled for the Carleton diamond but wet grounds there necessitated a shift.

Roger Hoog's wildness and several bloop singles allowed the Mules to overcome a five-run deficit in the bottom of the sixth inning. Coach Marvin Bergman's club scored eight times in the frame.

The Jets tallied seven runs off the usually-tough Mel Knaggs and it looked like a routine triumph into the fatal sixth.

Dick Williamson opened with a double and scored on Ron Boehme's single. A hit batsman and Gary Douge's pop fly single loaded the bases before Hoog walked Clayton Moon and Clinton Morris in succession.

Another Texas League hit scored Douge and Paul McDeavitt's clean one-baser into center field knotted the count. Williamson's single put the home team in front with an error, wild pitch and sacrifice fly accounting for two more runs.

The victory gave Bedford a 5-1 mark, all the victories coming in succession. Airport now is 3-1.

Hoog's Relief Hurling Sparks Jet Triumph

HILLSDALE — Airport's high-flying Jets stayed in the thick of the Southeastern Michigan Conference baseball race here Tuesday with a 7-4 victory over winless Hillsdale.

Coach Bill Leech's club now has a 2-1 mark in league play and a 4-1 overall record, but the Jets needed fine relief work from Roger Hoog for Tuesday's triumph.

Airport scored four runs in the first inning only to have their advantage slashed to a single tally when the Hornets were done batting in the fifth frame.

Starter-winner Ron Hatcher walked the leadoff man in the Hillsdale sixth and Coach Leech promptly brought Hoog in from third base. The runner, Bob White, was thrown out on a foolish attempt to steal third before Hoog retired five straight batters, four of them on third strikes.

Ron Breitner and Doug Ramsey were the key men in the Jet offense, both singling home a pair of runs in the opening frame. An error and two walks set the stage for Breitner's blow into right field with Ramsey's sock to the same spot accounting for the final two tallies of the inning.

Ace Bill Moyer replaced starter Phil Johnson in the second inning and he faced only 10 men in the next three stanzas.

Moyer tired in the later frames and was tagged for the only extra-base hits of the game in the seventh inning. Hatcher doubled and Breitner tripled him home.

The Jets are in action again today, meeting strong Flat Rock on the Carleton diamond.

Rams Win, 3-1, Over Airport

Gladding Effective As Relief Hurler

FLAT ROCK — Errors figured in all of the runs and Tom Burgoon had to have help from Fred (Perfect Game) Gladding here Wednesday as the Rams beat the Jets of Airport, 3-1. It was the fifth straight win for the Rams after an opening loss to Monroe and the second loss in six starts for the Jets. The Rams travel to Chelsea today.

Roger Hoog was on the mound for the Jets, striking out nine and issuing no walks while scattering five hits. Larry Berry opened the Ram fifth with a single and Ron Dunne bunted, Ben Meyer dropping the throw on the attempted force play at second. Burgoon then bunted and Hoog's throw for a force at third base got past Ron

Falcons Edge Airport, 4-3 For 6th Win

Catholic Central and Airport Community continued their redhot baseball rivalry Monday at Cairns Field, the clubs battling through 10 tense innings before the Falcons eked out a 4-3 victory.

It marked the sixth straight triumph for Coach Jack Castignola's parochials and their second in Southeastern Michigan Conference competition. It also ended a string of one-run losses to the Jets.

Airport and Central have met seven times in the last four seasons and Monday's thriller was the sixth to be decided by one run. The seventh game was a 4-2 Falcon win in the 1953 season opener. The Catholics are 3-4 over the span.

The series also includes two other overtime struggles — an 11-inning affair in 1952 and a 10-inning battle last year.

LaBeau Connects

Central's Dick Vigliotti, who had a great football night against the Jets but turned in two of his worst cage performances against Airport, was most of the show in Monday's game.

He scattered four hits and posted 17 strikeouts with all of the visitors' tallies unearned. But it took a clutch blow by scrappy Jim (Red) LaBeau to prevent a 3-1 Central loss in regulation time.

The Jets used a pair of fine hurlers in Roger Hoog and Ron Breitner and Coach Bill Leech dipped deep into his bag of tricks for strange but successful maneuvers.

14 Bases Stolen

Vigliotti had a large hand in the winning run when his alert baserunning and a Jet error sent the crowd home around 7 p.m.

The threat of a tie game hung heavy as the Falcon hurler spiked a solid single to center field to open the 10th stanza. He stole second for the 14th pilfered base of the contest.

Don May dumped a sacrifice bunt toward the pitcher's box and when Breitner threw low to first base May was safe. The ball rolled a short distance away from Hoog, now playing first, and Vigliotti never hesitated.

Hurlers Start Fast

Ie wheeled around third and beat the throw home by an eyelash to keep the Falcons undefeated.

The game started as a real pitcher's duel. Hoog fanned seven of the first nine men he faced and failed to 'allow a hit until Rudy Kominek dropped a blooper into right-center field in the fourth inning.

The first hit off Vigliotti was Clarence Frankhouse's bunt single with two out in the third frame.

Central broke the scoring ice in the fourth stanza. Co-Captain John Kehres was hit by a pitched ball with one out and stole second. He went to third on catcher John Jabe's wild throw and scored on Kominek's blooper.

Errors Hurt Falcons

It was earlier in the same inning that Coach Leech pulled his center-fielder into the infield to guard against a possible squeeze play. He used the same defense with the bases loaded in the eighth frame and it worked both times. Central batters swung away and popped out.

All three Falcon errors were committed in the fifth inning and they gave the Jets three runs on a lone hit. George Mell walked to open the frame and little Ray Doede pushed a soft liner into center for a single.

Boot Helps Jets

Hoog bunted and when Kehres' throw pulled Cliff Dandron off first base the sacks were jammed with none out.

Then Don Lessner threw low to the plate on Frankhouse's roller and the score was tied. Vigliotti turned on the heat to fan Ron Hatcher, and Breitner bunted into a force play at the plate.

But Dandron let Bennie Meyer's fast grounder go through his legs and the Jets had a 3-1 lead. The way Hoog was pitching it looked good.

Hit and Run Clicks

The junior fast-baller may have been tiring in the sixth frame as he issued his first base on balls to Lessner. Kominek singled to shortstop on the hit and run but Vigliotti popped up for the second out.

May walked on a 3-2 pitch and LaBeau promptly put the ball into centerfield for a two-run single.

The Falcons had men on in the 7th, 8th and 9th frames but it took Vigliotti's base-running in the 10th to end the marathon.

Hoog Almost Has No-Hitter

Effort Spoiled With Two Outs in Seventh

(Special to The Evening News)

CARLETON — Roger Hoog, Airport's tough luck junior who has hurled excellent ball all season but has only a 2-2 record to show for it, missed a no-hitter here Thursday with two out in the seventh inning.

Coach Bill Leech's Jets beat Tecumseh, 18-1, in the Southeastern Michigan Conference game, but Hoog lost his no-hit bid when Indian Allen Dickenson grounded a single to center with two gone in the final frame.

The blow scored Jim Green, who had walked and moved up on an infield out, to blast Hoog's shutout as well.

Tecumseh had only one other base runner, Ray Larned reaching first safely on a second inning error by Ray Doede. Hoog posted 14 strikeouts in his finest showing of the campaign.

Benny Meyer, who will leave Airport after the current season since his family is moving to Utica, paced the Jet attack with two triples and a single. He drove in four runs.

Ron Hatcher had three hits, one a home run, and Doug Ramsey and George Mell bagged two each. The Jets settled matters in a hurry, scoring 11 times in the second and third frames.

Airport Comes From Behind to Clip Huron

Ron Breitner's Hitting Paces 13-Run Attack

(Special to The Evening News)

HURON TOWNSHIP — Airport Community spotted neighboring Huron Township 11 runs in the second inning here Monday and came on to score a thrilling, 13-11 victory.

Coach Bill Leech's Jets posted their sixth victory in nine starts by piling home six runs in the final frame.

Ron Hatcher was Airport's starting pitcher and retired the first three men he faced. It was a different story in the second stanza, however.

An error started things for the Chiefs with a hit batsman and two walks producing a run. When Milt Dowler cleaned the bases with a three-run double, Coach Leech rushed Ron Breitner to the hill.

He walked three, tore loose a wild pitch and gave up a two-run single to Fred Dowler before Roger Hoog, who was slated to hurl Thursday against Hillsdale, was thrown into the breech.

Bob Hall nicked Hoog for a two-run single with a balk, a sacrifice fly, a base on balls and M. Dowler's second double of the inning rounding out the 11-tally frame.

Hoog settled down thereafter, allowing only one hit the rest of the way, and it was up to the Jet offense.

The visitors pecked away with three markers in the third stanza and a single tally in the fifth but it was 11-7 when Airport took its last turn at bat.

Benny Meyer, one of four Jets to make three hits, opened with a single and rode home on Breitner's long home run. With one out, John Jabe and Doug Ramsey singled to place the tying markers on base.

Pinch-hitter Ed Angulm came through with a double to score Jabe and put Ramsey on third. Freshman Jerry Tilley applied the clincher when he dumped a perfect squeeze bunt to plate Jabe with the equalizer. When the ball was thrown away, Ramsey crossed the plate with what proved to be the winning marker.

Meyer, Breitner, Jabe and Ramsey all had three hits but Breitner, who failed on the mound, was the big gun at the plate. His first inning triple drove in two runs, his third inning single plated another tally and his seventh frame four-master made it five RBIs for the day.

Airport Wins On Mell's Hit

Hillsdale Beaten In Last of Eighth

(Special to The Evening News)

CARLETON — George Mell's ground ball into left field with two in the bottom of the eighth inning broke up a Southeastern Michigan Conference thriller here Thursday and gave Airport Community a 4-3 victory.

Victim of the come-from-behind Jet effort was an improving Hillsdale squad that held a 3-0 lead at one time.

Mell's single, his second run-producing blow of the game, scored John Jabe from second base. Jabe had been hit by a pitched ball for the second time and stole second before Mell connected.

Airport's Roger Hoog was tagged for three singles and a double in Hillsdale's big third inning but otherwise allowed the Hornets only two hits and whiffed 11. Bud Mackey and Jim Rowe delivered splurge.

The Jets got one tally back in the bottom of the second when Jabe was plunked with a Bill Moyer pitch for the first time, went to second on a walk and scored on Mell's initial blow.

Two errors and Ron Breitner's one-baser produced another Airport counter in the third inning and singles by Doug Ramsey and Hoog with a sacrifice sandwiched in between tied the score in the sixth frame.

Breitner almost broke the tie in the bottom of the seventh when he blasted a long drive into right-center field only to be cut down at the plate on a fine relay.

Moyer, who has been troubled with a sore arm, made his best showing of the season after being hit hard in other starts.

Airport Trims Bedford Squad

Mel Knaggs Homers Twice in Mule Loss

(Special to The Evening News)

CARLETON — Bedford's Mel Knaggs, a diminutive curve-ball hurler for Coach Marvin Bergman's club, slammed a pair of two-run homers here Monday but gave up a grand slam circuit clout to John Jabe as the Mules dropped a 9-4 decision to Airport Community.

Coach Bill Leech's Jets currently have a 5-2 mark in Southeastern Michigan Conference play but they helped Catholic Central clinch a tie for the league title by handing Bedford its second loss.

Roger Hoog was the winning pitcher and he had his best game of the season. The junior fast-baller was hitting his spots in whiffing 16 Mules and failing to walk a man.

The losers collected five hits but Knaggs was their whole show at the plate. He cleared the short left field fence with a second inning blast and powdered another four-master to deep center field in the fourth frame.

Airport lashed the Mule senior for 10 hits, however, Jabe's long drive in the fifth inning capping the assault.

Clarence Frankhouse's triple, Benny Meyer's double and a single by Jabe produced a pair of first inning runs for Airport and the Jets added two more in the third on an error, Meyer's single and two infield outs.

Two errors, a walk and Meyer's third single preceded Jabe's line drive that cleared the 285-foot fence.

Hoog Wastes Fine Pitching

CARLETON — Hard-luck Roger Hoog allowed. Grosse Ile only one run and six hits in 9⅓ innings here Thursday but was the losing hurler as Airport Community bowed to the visiting Red Devils, 6-5, in 10 innings.

It was the second 10-frame loss for Coach Bill Leech's Jets and the club has one extra-inning victory. Airport stands 8-4 for the year with three games remaining.

Hoog, a junior who plays first base when not pitching, had one of the best days of his career, despite the setback. He failed to walk a single batter and blazed his fast ball for 13 strikeouts.

The defeat was made even more bitter by the fact that the Jets overcame a 5-0 deficit to send the contest into overtime.

Ron Breitner started for Airport but contributed more with his big bat than his pitching arm. He was charged with five runs in a hectic first inning that saw almost every offensive maneuver.

There were doubles by Jake Bennett and Don Miller, all three Jet errors, three stolen bases, three walks, two wild pitches and a passed ball.

An error, a passed ball and Doug Ramsey's single got one of the tallies back in the second stanza and Hoog's single accounted for another run in the fourth inning.

Breitner led off the fifth frame with a home run and Airport came on to tie the score on some weird plays. Two batters were safe at first base when they struck out on wild pitches with John Jabe singling home one run and Ron Keilman squeezing in the tying marker.

Coach Leech's crew blew a golden opportunity in the bottom of the ninth inning. Breitner blasted one over the right-field's head for a leadoff triple and victory seemed certain.

After Ron Hatcher grounded out, Coach Leech signaled a squeeze play. Jabe missed the bunt attempt and Breitner was picked off third base.

Fired up by their lease on life, the Red Devils produced the winning run in the top of the 10th. Bennett opened with a single, stole second and third and scored on Paul Babas' infield one-baser.

Mike Thompson was the winning pitcher. He gave Airport nine hits but whiffed 15.

CC Baseball Team Wins League Title

Clutch pitching by Dick Vigliotti and solid hitting by his mates combined to give Catholic Central its first outright Southeastern Michigan Conference baseball championship Monday at Cairns Field.

Coach Jack Castignola's Falcons eased past a tough Airport Community club when Vigliotti whiffed a pair of dangerous hitters with the bases loaded in the seventh inning. The parochials made 11 hits to the Jets' six but had to settle for a 6-4 win.

Central now has a 7-0 record in league competition with both Airport and Bedford Rural Ag standing with three setbacks. The Falcons complete loop competition Thursday at Bedford.

Coach Castignola's club ran its season mark to 13-2 with five games remaining. The 1954-55 edition already owns more wins than any other Falcon diamond squad and is shooting for a better percentage. The 1951 crew was 12-4.

Vigliotti was below par Monday in posting his eighth straight win, but he had it when needed. The junior southpaw walked six and struck out seven and had men on base in every inning but two.

Central hitters provided the runs needed, however, rattling Roger Hoog for 11 safeties — four of them extra base blows.

After three scoreless innings, the parochials broke the ice on singles by Chuck Goodnough and Bob Farmer in the fourth frame. Hits by Ron Breitner and Ron Hatcher and George Mell's booming triple gave the Jets their only lead in the bottom of the inning.

Co-Captain John Kehres' single, Barry Marshall's double and a two run error by catcher John Jabe put the locals ahead to stay in fifth stanza.

Central added another tally in the sixth inning on singles by Farmer and Kehres and posted two more in the seventh when Rudy Kominek and Vigliotti hit back to back triples. Vigliotti scored on Goodnough's onebaser.

An error, three walks and Doug Ramsey's two-run single placed Airport in a threatening position in the last of the seventh. The bases were loaded with one out and Breitner and Jabe were the scheduled batters.

Vigliotti fanned them both to wrap up the crown.

Kehres collected three singles for the Falcons with Marshall, Goodnough and Farmer getting two safeties each.

Jet Nine Clips Grosse Ile, 5-1

John Jabe Makes First Mound Start

GROSSE ILE — Airport Community's young but experienced baseball team revenged an earlier loss and pushed their season record to 9-5 here Thursday by dumping Grosse Ile, 5-1. Coach Bill Leech's Jets end their campaign Tuesday at Flat Rock.

John Jabe, a catcher all season, made his first appearance on the pitching mound and stopped the Red Devils on one run and two hits for four innings.

Roger Hoog took over in the fifth frame and received credit for the triumph when he blanked Grosse Ile the rest of the way.

Ron Breitner collected another homer for the Jets, blasting one over the left field fence in the second inning to tie the score.

Two errors, a fielder's choice and singles by Doug Ramsey and Ron Breitner gave Airport three runs in the third stanza and they proved decisive. A hit batsman, Ramsey's second safety, a sacrifice and a fielder's choice cashed an insurance marker in the seventh frame. Breitner and Ramsey comprised the two-hit department.

Airport Pounds Fred Gladding But Loses, 7-3

Don Mathews Tops Flat Rock Offense In Finale for Jets

CARLETON — Big Fred Gladding won his eighth game of the season here Tuesday but he contributed almost as much with his bat as with his pitching arm.

Coach Marvin Mittlestat's Flat Rock Rams posted a 7-3 victory over Airport Community but the losers had the satisfaction of giving Gladding his worst treatment since the Rams' opening game with Monroe's Trojans.

Coach Bill Leech's Jets scored three runs on eight hits, five bases on balls and one hit batsman. But they stranded 10 runners on the base paths.

It was a solid, 13-hit attack off two Airport hurlers that provided the Huron League champions with another victory. Flat Rock blasted five extra bases hits, two of them triples by Don Mathews.

The left-handed swinging Gladding belted two doubles in three official at bats. He scored one run and drove in another.

The Rams' Ron Dunne and Airport's John Jabe collected three safeties each with Byron Good, Tom Burgoon and Ron Breitner joining Mathews and Gladding in the two-hit department.

Coach Mittlestat's club took a lead they never relinquished in the first inning. A walk, Mathews' triple and Greg Hatcher's single produced the two lead tallies. Tom Burgoon's one-baser and an error added another marker in the second stanza.

Airport's big inning was the third when singles by Ken Phifer, Doug Ramsey, Benny Meyer and Breitner accounted for two runs.

Tuesday's battle was Airport's last of the campaign with the Leechmen posting a 9-6 record. Flat Rock faces Southeastern Michigan Conference champion Catholic Central twice next week.

Breitner Leads Airport Hitters With .407 Mark

Jets Tied for 2nd In First Season As SMC Member

(Special to The Evening News)

CARLETON — Ron Breitner, who compiled a .333 batting average as a sophomore in 1954, boosted his mark to .407 to lead the Airport Community hitters in the spring campaign which saw Coach William Leech's Jets post a 9-6 record. The Jets, playing as a member of the Southeastern Michigan Conference for the first time, had a 5-3 league record to tie for second place with Bedford's Mules. The Jets dropped 4-3 and 6-4 games to the SMC champions, Monroe Catholic Central, the first game going ten innings.

The Jets, working under Coach Leech for the second season, improved on their 7-7 season and had an 8-3 mark before losing three of the last four contests. The Jets tallied 97 runs to 69 for the opposition.

Doug Ramsey was the only other hitter to get over the .300 mark for the season. He had a .302 average with 16 hits in 53 trips to the plate. Breitner banged out 22 hits in 54 times at bat. Clarence Frankhouse, who played in only 10 games, and Ben Meyer led the run getters with 13 each. Ron Hatcher and Breitner each had 12 with John Jabe, pepperpot catcher, tallying 11 times.

Roger Hoog was the squads' most dependable hurler and got most of the tough assignments. He missed a no-hitter against Tecumseh, the lone hit coming with two out in the seventh. Breitner pitched a one-hitter against Huron Township to win by a 3-2 score.

One of the season highlights came in the second Huron Township game when the Jets, after trailing 11-3, scored six runs in the top of the seventh to win by a 13-11 score.

The Jets should be strong again next year with Robert Hollister the only loss through graduation. Juniors include Breitner, Hatcher, Hoog, Frankhouse, Jabe, Raymond Doede, George Mell, Ron Keilman and Charles Lambrix with Ben Meyer, Ken Phifer, Ramsey, Ed Angulim and Jerry Tilley as sophomores.
